- 24.1 This Agreement and any documents referred to in it constitute the whole agreement between the Parties and supersede any previous arrangement, understanding or agreement between the Parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement.
- 24.2 If there is an inconsistency between the terms of this Agreement or any other documents referred to in it, the terms of this Agreement shall prevail.

- 26.3 If there is an assignment pursuant to clause 26.2:
- 26.3.1 the Franchisee may discharge its obligations under this Agreement to the Franchisor until it receives written notice of the assignment;
 - 26.3.2 the assignee may enforce this Agreement as if it were a party to it;
 - 26.3.3 the liability of the Franchisee to any assignee cannot be greater than its liability to the Franchisor; and

- 26.4 Each party to this Agreement is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of another person.

27 NO PARTNERSHIP OR AGENCY

- 27.1 Nothing in this Agreement is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between any of the parties, nor constitute any party the agent of another party, nor authorise any party to make or enter into any commitments for or on behalf of any other party except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

28 FORCE MAJEURE

- 28.1 A party, provided that it has complied with the provisions of clause 28.2, shall not be in breach of this Agreement, nor liable for any failure or delay in performance of any obligations under this Agreement (and, subject to clause 28.3, the time for performance of the obligations shall be extended accordingly) arising from or attributable to acts, events, omissions or accidents beyond its reasonable control ("Force Majeure Event"), including but not limited to any of the following:
- 28.1.1 acts of God, flood, drought, earthquake or other natural disaster;

- 29.2 If any invalid, unenforceable or illegal provision would be valid, enforceable and legal if some part of it were deleted, the provision shall apply with the minimum modification necessary to make it legal, valid and enforceable and, to the greatest extent possible, to give effect to the commercial intention of the parties.
- 29.3 The parties agree, in the circumstances referred to in clause 29.1 and if clause 29.2 does not apply, to attempt to substitute for any invalid or unenforceable provision a valid and enforceable provision which achieves, to the greatest extent possible, the same effect as would have been achieved by the invalid or unenforceable provision. The obligations of the parties under any invalid or unenforceable provision of this Agreement shall be suspended while an attempt at such substitution is made.
